Morristown, two sisters; April, her husband Peter Bruyere, Morristown; and Sue Ann, her husband Michael Stoner, Heuvelton; as well as many nieces and nephews. David was also predeceased by his parents, his older brother Milford Gilmour and his nephew Jamieson Gilmour.

David ran Gilmour Insulations with his father John F. Gilmour during the 1970's.

He then stepped away from the family business and owned and operated River Run LTD, a construction company along with Border Construction Solutions. He completed many residential and commercial projects while in business over the years.

Mr. Gilmour was a former Elder for the Presbyterian Stone Church following the path of his mother, Emma Ruth. David was also on the Board of Building Trades for Young Adults for the St. Lawrence and Lewis County BOCES system.

David and Jayne were notorious travelers, putting their children in the back of their car and taking off for the weekend and continued this tradition with their grandchildren.

David would never turn his back on friends and family, whenever he saw an individual struggling, he would extend out his hand. He was kind, patient, brave and creative. There was not a single individual in David's life who did not experience his cooperation and support, he will be loved and missed by many.
